

TOM SIEGERT – Comedian

Tom burst onto the scene in the mid 2000's with a strong performance in the FHM search for Australia's funniest man.

He spent much of his early days on stage at Australia's biggest comedy club The Comics Lounge, where he enhanced his reputation as a young gun of Australian comedy, supporting some of the best acts in the business; including Dave Hughes, Fiona O'Loughlin and Jimeoin.

Tom is now a star in his own right and has found a cult following with his YouTube sensation The Suburban Footballer; a series of short sketches about the goings on at a local suburban football club.

His credentials extend well beyond his stand-up comedy, he has also written and starred in many segments for The Footy Show and in the Channel 7 series Kinne, which won him rave reviews and went to a second series.

With a sell-out season at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival and Perth Fringe Festival in 2019, Tom has also released two books 'The Suburban Footballer' and the kid book 'Harry and The Magic Footy Tree' which he also illustrated.

Tom can provide a performance that is guaranteed to add laughter to any function and make it a memorable night for all attending. A charming performer, with razor sharp wit, Tom is a brilliant comic performer, who quickly builds a good rapport with the audience. A great storyteller with a style that is warm, charming and inoffensive, he has any audience appreciating his hysterically funny routines and talking about them for days after.

Whether livening up proceedings at your local social or sporting club or entertaining your most important clients at the biggest of corporate events, Tom is your man!
